School starts @ 9.20 am

Dear all,

The year is flying along and we can't believe we are in the last term.

This term we have two great events in the Confirmation and First Holy Communion.

Confirmation is on Wednesday the 1st of May at 11.30 and Communion is on the 11th of May at 11.30.

We are looking forward to both these occasions.

We have good news as regards our Green Flag Award in that we have been awarded our fifth green flag for our work on Climate Change. We are the first school in the area to receive this flag. Congratulations to all involved especially the committee and Ms O Mahony. We will be presented with the green flag on May 20th and we will have a ceremony in the school at a later date. Please continue to walk or cycle to school.

On that note there are still one or two cars insisting on pulling in at the school entrance and parking on the yellow chevrons. At no time is this allowed, this is a no go area at all times.

Please remember that we have a healthy eating policy at school and that chocolate is not allowed nor are any crisp like snacks. Check the healthy eating policy on the website.

Many, many thanks to all who have paid the voluntary contribution so far. (€ 30 for one child and €50 for a family). If you haven't, if at all possible please send it in this month. There are many options.

- You can pay online by logging onto our website and following the link.
- You can pay using the envelope.
- You can also pay any amount you can afford as every amount helps.

Hopefully this term will be full of sunshine and the children can get out to play both in school and at home.

Communion

The children in Ms Farrell's and Ms McCrudden's are busy preparing for their First Holy Communion. Parents from third class and first class have been asked to help with the preparations for the party after the ceremony. Please give your name into the office and we can forward your details to the parents' committee. Help is needed on the Friday evening, the 10th of May and Saturday morning the 11th of May. It is a most enjoyable occasion.

The parents' committee invited a speaker, Noelle O Kane, from the National Parents' Association to speak to the parents in Balrothery. There was a good turnout. It was a very interesting and informative talk.

The Parents' Committee is running a copper trail in the school. Please send in any coppers you may have lying around the house. There is a night off homework for the class who gathers the largest amount of money.

Yellow Flag

We had a very successful yellow flag cultural day on Friday the 12th of April. We were lucky with the weather and there was a great turnout.

The day started with parents visiting the projects that each class had produced and displayed. There were food samples from various countries and many interesting stalls. We had an English tea party, which included the Mad Hatter, the Irish Traveller Ladies who made paper flowers, we had a very interesting Japanese area with some lovely traditional ornaments and we had a selection of African and European objects and food.

The Irish dancers organised by Ms Farrell entertained us, followed by Annette & Co, an African choir, who sang beautifully. Anthony Lawrence read a poem written by his dad, David.

The parade up the back of the school was great, highlighting the fact that there are people from all different countries living and working all over the world.

Many thanks to Paula Madden, Yellow Flag coordinator, Ms McGovern, Ms Coyle, Mrs Denver, Mr & Mrs Blaine, Mrs Gloria Ifeanyi, Mrs Kathleen Mongan and the yellow flag committee. It was a day to remember! See the website for photos. Log onto BalrotheryNS.com
